A. C. ARMSTRONG & SON

Will Publish November 10th:

RAPHAEL:

HIS LIFE, HIS WORKS, AND HIS TIMES.

Translated from the French of EUGENE MUNTZ.

Illustrated with 155 Engravings and 43 Full-page plates. One imperial octavo volume, 620 pages, handsomely bound in half morocco, gilt top, or full gilt edges, price, $15; turkey morocco, $20; in levant morocco, or tree calf, $22.50.

The large number of illustrations in the text, together with the numerous full-page plates, in this superb work, all reproduced from Paintings or fac-similes of Drawings of RAPHAEL, by the FIRST ARTISTS IN EUROPE, make this the most artistic and valuable Gift-Book ever published in this country.

"THE ILLUSTRATIONS COMPRISE NEARLY EVERY WORK OF GREAT IMPORTANCE BY THE MASTER, and by the courtesy of Mr. Louis Fagan we have been enabled to give as a Frontispiece an engraved fac-simile of one of the most exquisite of Raphael's drawings, 'The Study,' now in the British Museum, for the heads of the Virgin and Child in the picture formerly belonging to Mr. Sam'l Rogers."—From Translator's Preface.

Also, Just Ready:

A Picturesque Tour in Picturesque Lands.

The 170 illustrations are engraved in the highest style of art. The binding is richly ornamented, extra cloth, full gilt side and edges, bevelled boards (put up in a neat box). Price, $10.

The London Times says: "Nothing can be happier than the way in which the artists of this work bring palpably before us precisely what we want to know. Many of the subjects will be recognized as the work of artists so distinguished as Jules Breton, Corot, the eminent landscape painter; Israels, the first of the modern Dutch school, and Tidemand, the Norwegian, whose pictures are so remarkable for truth and character."

Fine Art Gift-Books for Young People:

The May Blossom;

OR, THE PRINCESS AND HER PEOPLE.

One quarto volume, handsomely bound. Uniform with "AFTERNOON TEA." Price, $2.50.

Shakspearian Tales in Verse.

With ONE HUNDRED full pages of colored and other illustrations, from ORIGINAL DESIGNS. Royal quarto volume, elegantly bound in extra cloth, full gilt sides and edges. Price, $3.

A. C. ARMSTRONG & SON, 714 Broadway, New York.

LEAVES OF GRASS.

WALT WHITMAN'S COMPLETE POEMS.

382 pages, compact long primer type, bound in old gold cloth. Containing all the matter comprised in his former volumes, with his latest poems. With portrait. 1 vol., 12mo., $2.00. Half calf, $4. Tree calf, $5.

The first and only complete edition of the works of the "good gray poet" will be heartily welcomed by his numerous admirers.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON terms the main poems, "The most extraordinary piece of wit and wisdom America has yet contributed."

The Revue des Deux Mondes pronounces the war pieces—"Drum Taps"—the most fervid and profound of any expression of the sort in modern literature.

"The Rocky Mountains of America, and Saguenay's Cape Eternity, uprising among these Songs."—Letter from Italy.

"New Social and Esthetic Theories for Democracy underlie them all."—German Criticism.

"Over all, the word Modernness."—JOHN BURROUGHS.

"The South, her dead, her memories, included with perfect love."—Carolina Criticism.

"Physical Health, Open Air Nature, and Comradeship."—Canada Criticism.

"Curiously, yet certainly, the poem of the War of 1861-65."—German Criticism.

THE AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER.

By CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER. 1 vol., 32mo, vest-pocket size, 25 cents.

A prettily bound edition of Mr. Warner's celebrated essay, read before the American Social Science Association.

ROSEMARY AND RUE.

Vol. VII. of the "Round Robin" Series. $1.

"The book is much like 'A Nameless Nobleman' in its style and tone, and has the same blending of French and American scenery that are found in that book."—Sunday Budget.

JUST PUBLISHED:

A NEW NOVEL

By the Author of "ONE SUMMER."

AUNT SERENA.

By BLANCHE WILLIS HOWARD. 1 vol., 16mo, $1.25.

"Setting aside its fascination as a story, it is a bright, fresh, clean-cut piece of literary work, unconventional in tone and independent in spirit. . . . Miss Howard is entitled to a high place among the best writers of American fiction."—Boston Transcript.

"A much stronger novel than 'One Summer.' The canvas is broader, there are more characters, the theme is more complex, and there is the same breezy, healthy tone and quiet humor which marked Miss Howard's earlier work."—Boston Traveller.

ELEANOR MAITLAND.

A Novel. By Mrs. CLARA ERSKINE CLEMENT. 1 vol., 16mo. $1.25.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON:

HIS LIFE, WRITINGS, AND PHILOSOPHY.

By GEORGE WILLIS COOKE. 1 vol., crown octavo, $2.50.

"The book has been corrected in its personal statements by a member of Mr. Emerson's family, and will be taken generally as a substantial and authoritative volume, the faithful gleanings of a faithful disciple—much matter which has been put into type at least once, but is not to be found in Mr. Emerson's volumes, is here brought together to illustrate critical passages in the career of this remarkable man, and the public will generally concede, on reading what Mr. Cooke has to say, that he is a most excellent Boswell."—New York Times.

SOUTH SEA SKETCHES:

A Narrative. By MRS. MADELINE VINTON DAHLGREN. 1 vol., 12mo, $1.50.

Callao, Lima, the islands and ports under the shadow of the Andes; Valparaiso, Santiago, and other beautiful cities of the South Seas.

The New York Commercial Advertiser says: "The work is of extreme interest."

SONGS AND LYRICS.

By Miss ELLEN MACKAY HUTCHINSON. 1 vol., 16mo, $1.25. With a frontispiece showing the picture which George H. Broughton painted under the inspiration of Miss Hutchinson's poem of "Rose Standish."

"Tender and delicate bits of verse . . . exquisitely graceful and sweet."—Transcript.

LAWRENCE BARRETT'S BIOGRAPHY OF EDWIN FORREST.

Illustrated with 7 Pictures. Vol. I. of the "American Actor Series." Price, $1.25.

"Mr. Lawrence Barrett, himself an eminent actor, has . . . performed a difficult task with quiet dignity of manner, delicacy of feeling, and an almost faultless discretion in his choice of materials, and in his clear, sustained, fair-minded, and interesting commentary upon them."—New York Tribune.

THE MEMOIRS OF

Count Moit de Melito,

Minister, Ambassador, Councillor of State, and Member of the Institute of France, between the years 1788 and 1815. Edited by General FLEISCHMANN. From the French, by Mrs. Cashel Hoey and Mr. John Lillie. 1 vol., crown 8vo, 720 pages, $2.

This is a work of extraordinary historical and biographical interest. The author takes up the history of the Empire at the point at which Madame de Rémusat drops it, and reveals the true story of the Spanish fiasco as it has never hitherto been exposed. His presence at Blois, when the news of the Emperor's abdication reached the Empress Marie Louise and the members of the Imperial family who had fled thither from Paris, enables him to describe in minute detail one of the suggestive episodes of a history that lacks nothing which the irony of fate could inflict in the way of contrast. He supplements and completes the historical narrative, for which we are indebted to the Memoirs and Letters of Prince Metternich and Madame de Rémusat.

II.

Schwatka's Search;

Sledging in the Arctic in Quest of the Franklin Records. By WILLIAM H. GILDER, second in command. 1 vol., 8vo, with maps and illustrations, $3.

The fascination that always hangs about a narrative of Arctic exploration will be felt in a more than ordinary degree by every reader of Col. Gilder's book. It is the first account of the expedition given to American readers; and, apart from its interest as an explorer's narrative, it must be regarded as finally settling the vexed question as to the Franklin party.

The numerous illustrations are from sketches by Mr. Klutschak, the artist of the expedition.

III.

Lay Sermons.

By Professor JOHN STUART BLACKIE, 1 vol., 12mo, $2.

These are the Sermons of a layman, and, of course, are not written from a clerical standpoint; they are philosophical rather than theological, and although religious in their aim and tendency, they are as far as possible from sectarianism or narrowness. The author is distinguished for his poetical style, his fund of forcible illustration, and his wide culture.

IV.

The Boy's Mabinogion.

By SIDNEY LANIER. With 12 full-page illustrations by Alfred Fredericks. 1 vol., 8vo, $3.

The late Mr. Sidney Lanier performed a service of very great value in editing for young people the series of English chronicles and folk-lore, which receives an addition in this volume of prose romances, translated by Lady Charlotte Guest from the Welsh. These stories all centre about the court of King Arthur, and thus form a companion book to "The Boy's King Arthur," recently published.

Published Tuesday, November 1st:

V.

A RE-ISSUE OF THE

Complete Writings of Dr. J. G. Holland,

With the author's revision. The volumes of this edition are printed from new stereotype plates at greatly reduced prices.

Now Ready:

Titcomb's Letters. 1 vol., 16mo, $1.25.

Gold Foil. 1 vol., 16mo, $1.25.

Bittersweet. 1 vol., 16mo, $1.25.

VI.

The Letters of Charles Dickens.

VOL. III.

Edited by Miss DICKENS and Miss HOGARTH. 1 vol., 12mo, $1.50.

This final volume of Charles Dickens' letters comprises his correspondence with Lord Lytton and Sir Austin H. Layard, and many letters to intimates on both sides of the ocean, as well as to members of his family. The volume is in this last respect even more interesting than the two already published, and no lover of Dickens will rest content to be without these books, containing more of his personal history than any biography of him does, and giving a new conception of his genius and character.

VII.

A Floating Prince,

AND OTHER FAIRY TALES. By FRANK R. STOCKTON. 1 vol., 4to, beautifully illustrated, $2.50.

Mr. Stockton's remarkable faculty for imaginative and humorous narrative for younger readers has never shown itself to so great advantage as in the stories of this collection. The several tales which make up the volume are not all in the same vein, but have each its own motive and individuality.

VIII.

Books and Reading.

By NOAH PORTER, LL.D., President of Yale College. With an appendix giving valuable directions for courses of reading, prepared by James M. Hubbard, late of the Boston Public Library. 1 vol., crown 8vo, $2.

It would be difficult to name any American better qualified than President Porter to give advice upon the important question of "What to Read and How to Read." His acquaintance with the whole range of English literature is most thorough and exact, and his judgments are eminently candid and mature. The demand for the work having exhausted several editions, a new one has been prepared, containing valuable directions for courses of reading by a distinguished bibliographer.

NOTES IN SEASON.

HENRY A. SUMNER & Co. announce that the first edition of "Pioneer Life in the West," by J. B. Walker, has been exhausted, and that a revised and corrected edition is now in press. They issue this week a new novel by W. S. Balch, entitled "A Peculiar People."

ROBERT A. TRIPPLE, Philadelphia, has now ready the memorial edition of "The Book Hunter," by Dr. John Hill Burton, being a facsimile reprint of the original edition, with a memoir by Æ. J. G. Mackey, and other important additions. Barnard Shipp's "History of Hernando De Soto," with maps, etc., is also ready.

PETER PAUL & BRO., Buffalo, N. Y., encouraged by the success of their "Christmas Stocking" last year, issue for this season a novelty entitled "Kriss Kringle's Greeting," containing original and selected poems in English, French, and German, and translations from the Swedish, with two Christmas carols set to music for solo and mixed voices, with piano accompaniment.

WHITE & STOKES announce that the first edition of "Esau Hardery," by W. O. Stoddard, was sold on the day of publication, and that they are preparing a second edition as speedily as possible. They have now ready the prize painting book, "Good Times," by Dora Wheeler, which while making a beautiful gift book for the children will also stimulate the efforts of young artists towards securing the prizes offered. Mrs. Lamb's "Christmas Owl," a quaint holiday device, is also ready for the Christmas trade.

ROBERT CLARKE & Co. will issue, November 10, a sketch of "Governor Thomas Corwin," by A. P. Russell, the author of "Library Notes," etc. The volume gives a free sketch of a great genius by an acquaintance and admirer. It is not a tedious recital of dry facts and uninteresting incidents, but is confined to such statements, references, and illustrations as give a fair idea of the eminent man's character and genius. The book will have a steel portrait of Gov. Corwin, engraved expressly for this book by J. A. J. Wilcox, of Boston, from a photograph by Brady.

D. APPLETON & Co. will shortly publish a work of great interest on "Suicide," contributed to the International Scientific Series by Dr. Morselli, of Turin. It is a scientific inquiry, on the basis of the statistical method, into the laws of suicidal phenomena. Dealing with the subject as a branch of social science, it considers the increase of suicide in different countries, and the comparison of nations, races, and periods in its manifestation. The influences of age, sex, constitution, climate, season, occupation, religion, prevailing ideas, the elements of character, and the tendencies of civilization, are comprehensively analyzed in their bearing upon the propensity to self-destruction. It will be accompanied by colored maps illustrating pictorially the results of statistical inquiries.

A. C. ARMSTRONG & Co. announce as their leading work for the holiday season an artistic and valuable reproduction of noted masterpieces, under the title of "Raphael; his Life, his Works, and his Times," the text translated from the French of Eugene Muntz, and embellished with forty-three full-page plates and one hundred and fifty-five engravings, reproduced from paintings or fac-similes of drawings of Raphael by eminent European artists. An especial feature of the work is the reproduction, as a frontispiece, of one of the most exquisite of Raphael's drawings, not found in any other collection of his works. It is a study for the heads of the Virgin and Child, reproduced from the original now in the British Museum. The volume is an imperial octavo, handsomely bound in half or full morocco.

S. C. GRIGGS & Co., Chicago, have just issued a neat holiday volume of poems entitled "Lyrics of Home Land," by Eugene J. Hall, already widely and popularly known as a writer of felicitous verse. Many of them are in the quaint dialect of New England, and abound in homely, good-natured wit and humor. The volume contains nearly fifty appropriate illustrations, and is printed and bound in uniform style with "Songs of Yesterday" and "Old-Time Pictures and Sheaves of Rhyme," by Benj. F. Taylor, many of whose poems have already grown to be classics, and of which new editions have also just been published. The new volume by Dr. Winchell, "Sparks from a Geologist's Hammer," may be expected at once. It is a collection of more or less connected papers on scientific and semi-scientific themes. The authorship is a guarantee of learning and an entertaining style combined.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS issue this week "The Memoirs of Count de Melito," the celebrated minister, ambassador councillor of state, and member of the Institute of France, between the years 1782 and 1815, edited by General Fleischmann and translated from the French by Mrs. Cashel Hoey and Mr. John Lillie. This memoir will supplement and complete the historical data we already have of that period of French history from the memoirs and letters of Prince Metternich and Madame de Rémusat. They will also issue Col. Gilder's volume on "Schwatka's Search," with maps and illustrations; "Lay Sermons," by Prof. John Stuart Blackie; "The Boys' Mabinogion," by the late Sidney Lanier, whose "Froissart's Chronicles" and "King Arthur" have already become standards. This volume will have 12 illustrations by Alfred Fredericks. They have also issued "A Floating Prince," and other fairy tales, by Frank R. Stockton, whose faculty for imaginative and humorous narrative for younger readers shows to excellent advantage in this collection.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.

In this list, the titles in brevier are direct transcriptions from books actually received, according to the rule of the American Library Association; those in nonpareil are from the best information available, and will be repeated in brevier when the book is received for registry.

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); Q. (4to: under 30 cm.); O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (12mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tt. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. (48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights. Where figure instead of letter symbols are used, the record is from publisher's designation, and not measurement.

Imported books are marked with an asterisk; authors' and subscription books, or books published at net prices, with two asterisks; educational books published at "wholesale" prices, with a dagger.

Ahn-Henn's first Latin reader: De septem regibus Romanorum; extracts from the first book of Livy; with notes, vocabulary, and references to Ahn-Henn's Latin grammar. [Anon.] N. Y., E. Steiger & Co., 1881. 4+186 p. D. cl., 80 c.; bds., 70 c.

The editor has selected from Livy's first book the story of the Roman kings, and preserved, not only the same order of clauses, but also the same words as in the original. The thread of the story has been kept intact, and only such portions have been omitted as may be better learned elsewhere. —Preface.

Cornwall, Sarah Jerusha. Roses and myrtles: [poems]. N. Y., Appleton, 1881. 203 p. 12° cl., $1.50.

Darkest before dawn, by the author of "The ice carnival;" [also] A child of the streets. N. Y., J. S. Ogilvie & Co., 1881. 30 p. Q. (People's lib., no. 105.) pap., 10 c.

De Lolme, J. L., Wallace, R., and Bridgeman, H., comp. French and English dictionary, compiled from the best authorities of both languages; rev., corr. and enl., from the 7th and latest ed. (1877) of the Dictionary of the French Academy, by E. Roubaud, 116th thousand. N. Y., Cassell, Petter, Galpin & Co., [1881]. 26 + 1122 p. D. cl., reduced to $1.50.

This new ed. of Cassell's well-known dictionary has been entirely re-set, nearly 3000 new words added, and many new features, necessitating the increase of the size of the book by nearly 200 pages; among the important additions made is a complete list of all the nouns of double gender with their meanings; the spelling, accents, etc., have all been revised and corrected according to the recent Academy alterations.

Douglas, Edith. We Von Arldens. Chic., H: A. Sumner & Co., 1881. 487 p. il. D. cl., $1.50.

A novel of American life, in which all the members of the Von Arldens family figure—seven young people and the father and mother; the story deals with their love affairs in particular, and their various eccentricities in general.

Draper, Lyman C., LL.D. King's Mountain and its heroes; history of the battle of King's Mountain, October 7, 1780, and the events which led to it. Cin., P: G. Thomson, 1881. 612 p. pors., maps and plans, O. cl., $4.

A most important contribution to the history of the revolutionary struggle in the South, and of the victory of the Whig border leaders over Tory opposition. The volume gives not only a clear and rapid narrative of the preliminary events which led to this notable victory, but adds many details of the battle itself, hitherto unpublished, and gives full memoirs of all the prominent actors of that distinguished event. The author, who is Secretary of the State Historical Soc. of Wisconsin, and member of various historical and antiquarian societies of the U. S., has been collecting materials for this volume since 1830. The volume is attractively gotten up, and contains a full index.

Edwards, Emory. Modern American marine engines—boilers and screw propellers; their design and construction, showing the present practice of the most eminent engineers and marine engine builders in the United States, for the use of engineers, draughtsmen and engineering students. Phil., H: Carey Baird & Co., 1881. 16 + 146 p. 30 pl., 4° cl., $5.

Edwards, Emory. A catechism of the marine steam-engine, for the use of engineers, firemen and mechanics: a practical work for practical men. 3d ed., rev., with additions. Phil., H: Carey Baird & Co., 1881. 414 p., il. with 63 eng., 12° cl., $2.

Farnham, Rev. E. P. James Abram Garfield: memorial sermon delivered at Friendship St. Baptist Church, Sep. 25, 1881. Providence, R. I., Tibbitts & Shaw, 1881. 13 p. O. pap., 25 c.

Nason, Rev. Elias. Life and public services of Henry Wilson. Bost., D. Lothrop & Co., [1881]. 452 p. por. D. (Famous Americans, 2d ser.) cl., $1.50.

Mr. Wilson rose from extreme poverty to be one of our most distinguished public men; he served the government in many capacities—finally as U. S. Senator; he is the author of the "Rise and fall of the slave-power in America," and was all his life a pronounced anti-slavery man and a friend of the colored race; he is known not only as a statesman of wide sympathies and liberal views, but as a man of unblemished character; b. 1812, d. 1875.

Nicolay, J. G. The outbreak of rebellion. N. Y., C. Scribner's Sons, 1881. 10+220 p. maps, D. (Campaigns of the civil war, no. 1.) cl., $1.

With this work the Messrs. Scribner begin their monographs upon the campaigns of the civil war; the author of this volume was private secretary to President Lincoln, and is therefore specially fitted for writing of the period which he covers—the opening of the war and the various hostile steps which preceded it, the election of Lincoln, the call to arms and the response, and the first disastrous campaigns to the end of the battle of Bull Run; he had not only his personal recollections to call upon, but a vast amount of new material on official public records. The book contains a number of route and battlefield maps. Index.

"A novel of which the scene is laid in the time of the Revolution, and in which the characters are Quakers, Jews and a French marquis. The book lacks a villain, and its interest centres on the differing religious faith of its personages, more than one of whom has his loyalty severely tested. There is an especially fine chapter depicting the struggles of a Jew who loves a Christian, and another in which the Quaker side of the argument is set forth."—N. Y. Herald Boston corresp.

Seguin, L. G. Picturesque tour in picturesque lands. N. Y., A. C. Armstrong & Son, 1882. 8+241 p. il. F. cl., $10.

An illustrated description of a tour through France, Spain, Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Tyrol, Italy and Scandinavia; the il. number over 170 woodcuts, many of them full-page, from designs by some of the most celebrated painters of the various countries described; the work is handsomely printed on fine English paper, and compares most favorably with the édition de luxe of this work that was in the market last season.

Shedd, Mrs. Julia A. Famous sculptors and sculpture; il. with heliotypes from many famous works of sculpture. Bost., Ja. R. Osgood & Co., 1881. 6+319 p. D. cl., $3; hf. cf., $5; tree cf., $7.

Gives, in condensed form, authentic information about the great sculptors of ancient and modern times, with a description of the masterpieces of sculpture now existing; begins with the dawning of the best period of Greek and Roman art, giving an account of the most celebrated sculptors and their works to the decline of classic art; commences again with the revival of art in Italy and extends to the present time, not, however, including living sculptors. Gives at the end of the book: Catalogue of antique sculptures; Catalogue of renaissance and modern sculptures; A list of interesting works in modern sculpture in the U. S. with names of owner or the place where they stand. Names of ancient Grecian and Roman sculptors and renaissance and modern. General index.

Stearns, J. N. National temperance almanac and teetotaler's year-book for 1882. N. Y., National Temp. Soc. and Pub. House, [1881]. 64 p. il. D. pap., 10 c.

Stowe, Mrs. Harriet Beecher. A dog's mission; or, the story of the old Avery House, and other stories. N. Y., Fords, Howard & Hulbert, [1881]. 131 p. il. sq. D. cl., $1.25.

"A dog's mission" tells of the reuniting of a broken and scattered family through the haps and mishaps of a frisky little Scotch terrier, his unwelcome entrance into the lonely house and heart of a crusty but kindly old maid, and his accidental meeting with little Susy, the heroine, as Trot is the hero of the book. Contains 7 other stories: Lulu's pupil; The daisy's first winter; Our Charley; Take care of the hook; A talk about birds; The nest in the orchard; The happy child.

Stowe, Mrs. Harriet Beecher. Little pussy-willow; [also] The minister's watermelons. [New ed.] N. Y., Fords, Howard & Hulbert, [1881]. 6+161 p. il. sq. D. cl., reduced to $1.25.

"Little pussy willow" is one of the most charming young-girl stories—a perfect picture of lovely child and blossoming maiden. "The minister's watermelons" is a story for boys and boarding-schools, and one that will be as welcome to the young folk as to their elders.

Stowe, Mrs. Harriet Beecher. Queer little people. [New ed.] N. Y., Fords, Howard & Hulbert, [1881]. 6+191 p. sq. D. cl., reduced to $1.25.

In "Queer little people" Mrs. Stowe's sympathetic observation of animal nature and her humorous fancy have full play. Humming-birds and mocking-birds, rats, cats, and many dogs of many kinds, wild fowls and tame, including the famous "hen that hatched ducks," offer a feast of fun and incident that the little folk will never tire of.

Taswell-Langmead, T. Pitt. English constitutional history from the Teutonic conquest to the present time. 2d ed., rev. throughout with additions. London, [Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co.], 1881. 26+804 p. 8°. cl., $7.50.

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT.

From N. Y. Tribune, Oct. 22.

PROFESSOR SIMON NEWCOMB contributes to our columns to-day a few remarks upon what he calls "the English view of the proposed International Copyright Treaty," apropos of the criticisms upon that instrument recently stated with so much force by our well-known correspondent, G. W. S. If Professor Newcomb means to imply that the view of G. W. S. is in any distinctive sense an English view of the question, he is mistaken. The same objections to the three months' limit which are now urged by our London correspondent were presented in the editorial columns of The Tribune when the pending proposals were first broached by the Harpers, and have often been repeated. We have always looked upon them—and so have a great many authors on this side of the ocean as well as the other—as fatal to the usefulness of the scheme, making of it a mere device for the benefit of a few publishers, while it falsely pretends to be a measure of protection for the rights of authors; and to assume that these are "English objections" is unwarrantable and unfair. Professor Newcomb regrets that opponents of the treaty should seek to prejudice the judgment by raising the question cui bono; but he does not see that in defending the treaty he is resorting to the same tactics.

The futility of a so-called author's copyright hampered by the three months' limit has been shown by arguments and illustrations to which Professor Newcomb makes no direct answer. He contents himself with pointing out what seem to him the difficulties in the way of an author's copyright without the limit; and here is his principal point:

"An English author brings out a popular book; has his copyright duly registered in America; circulates the English copies of his book in that country; but does not bring out an American edition for six months, a year, two years, or three years. What is the American public to do? Whoever answers this question will contribute something to the discussion."

The American public is to do what it does when the owner of any other article besides a book refuses to sell—namely, do without it. There is little danger of such a condition of things prevailing. English editions are taxed in this market with a heavy tariff duty, and it is not to be supposed that the foreign author will be so blind to his own interest as to prevent the circulation of an American edition of his book when he is to be paid for it. But if he prefers not to sell to us he has the same right to refuse that a cotton-spinner has.

[Prof. Newcomb's communication above referred to, as well as a later communication from Messrs. G. P. Putnam's Sons, relating to the same subject, have been crowded out on account of the pressure on other columns and must be held over until a subsequent issue.]

COMMUNICATIONS.

EVER "STARTING A NEW BOOK-STORE."

Editor of Publishers' Weekly:

To be a bookseller seems to beget in the minds of the general public an impression that he or they are very desirable subjects to be filched, robbed, and otherwise imposed upon, under every circumstance, and (piously) "on all and every occasion." Of course, we are speaking of a legitimate, good-hearted, hard-plodding bookseller, who from the very love of books is willing to sell and on all occasions do the professional shading. Now, Mr. Editor, it does not require much observation or discernment to know that to start a proper book-store needs a good few of Uncle Samuel's promises to pay. But perhaps that may be the reason why it is deemed perfectly just to impose upon this good-natured class of our citizens, and teach them frugality when they go to purchase books.

The above may be all very true, and while your subscriber is a bookseller and possesses all the virtues of the fraternity, he does feel as if he had a right to take exceptions to some of the hard-fisted impostors and save both his head and pocket from getting too often cracked.

At college and university opening terms there is a very generous class of students that start a half-breed book-store, with the fixed determination of stealing from the legitimate booksellers. With a few dollars at their command, they go among their fellow-students and denounce the booksellers as "frauds," and request the placing of all orders for text-books in their hands and they will make very liberal discounts (usually a few cents below the hard plodders), nay, will furnish them at cost. Now these noble and generous youths, who have opened their hearts to do a labor of love for nothing, having begun by lying about the booksellers and lying to their fellow-students, send orders to the publishers, and lying to them, represent themselves as "starting a new book-store" and demand the privileges of the "trade," and which, we are sorry to say, they get, and thus line their pockets with that which morally and legally belongs to the bookseller.

These students, or student booksellers, pay no taxes, no rent, have no stock, nor do they increase a single sale, or supply a demand the hard-plodding money-spending bookseller is unable to do. A college book-store has never been known to be a success, either to the student or the institution represented. The first, as a rule, becomes a cipher in his educational course, more anxious to acquire money, than good sense, while the latter is afflicted with a cancer that eats at its good name and educational status.

Now, Mr. Editor, can you give the trade a remedy? Can you tell us why publishers exhibit a nervous energy to supply orders from such parties, who are always "starting new book-stores." Perhaps the old book-stores have outlived their usefulness, and are no longer the divine orb of mental power, or the grand elevation (barring religion) of man, so must pass into HADES.

THE CENTURY CO.'S NEW OFFICES.

THE CENTURY COMPANY at last finds itself comfortably established and at work in its new and spacious offices on Union Square, North, occupying the entire fourth floor of the large building adjoining the Everett House. A more commanding business location in this city would be hard to find. The building has a large L bounding the rear of the Everett House, so that the floor space at the service of the company gives an immense working area. The entire front half of the floor occupied is devoted to the business offices of the company, the open space broken only by the cosy room of Mr. Roswell Smith in the south-east corner, the door to which frames an artistic stained glass window—the gift of the stockholders to Mr. Smith. The remainder of the floor north of the business offices and the whole of the L are occupied by the pleasant editorial and art rooms of the Century and St. Nicholas, and by the stock and shipping departments. In one of the most commodious of the Century offices, the draped chair and vacant desk recall the fallen chief. Passenger and freight elevators give easy connection with the street, while the whole arrangement of these spacious quarters gives a sense of amplitude and breathing room that contrasts favorably with the former contracted, though pleasant offices of the company. The view from the front windows looking upon Union Square and down both Broadway and Fourth Avenue is in itself an inspiration, while the simplicity of decoration, the neutral tints of the office walls, the solidity and attractiveness of the furniture and woodwork add to the air of welcome which the ample fireplaces and comfortable upholstery suggest. The Century Company is to be congratulated upon the elegant quarters in which it has found a home.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

MR. JULIAN HAWTHORNE purposes, it is said, going to Italy shortly, and on his return he will proceed to the United States, abandoning England, where he has lived for some year past. A novel of his will be begun in this month's Macmillan.

MR. AUSTIN DOBSON has completed a short selection from the eighteenth century essayists for the Parchment Library of Messrs. Paul, Trench & Co. It is restricted to the essay of humor and manners, and will be illustrated with a design, by Mr. Randolph Caldecott, of the "Tory Foxhunter" from Addison's "Freeholder."

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

LOCKWOOD, BROOKS & Co. have issued an edition for 1882 of their "American Poets' Calendar," which proved very popular last year.

A. D. F. RANDOLPH & Co. have in preparation "Morning, Noon, and Night," a pocket manual of private prayer, edited by Rev. Edward Garbett.

WM. R. JENKINS, of New York, has purchased from Finch & Apgar, Ithaca, N. Y., the entire remainder of Prof. James Law's "Farmer's Veterinary Adviser."

THE new edition of Chambers' Encyclopædia issued by R. Worthington has been revised to date, and includes notices of President Garfield's death and the inauguration of President Arthur and the latest statistics of England.

E. P. DUTTON & Co. have just issued "We Four," a juvenile by Mrs. Reginald Bray, with illustrations by Miss Nellie Erichsen; they also issue Bishop Huntington's sermons for Lay Reading in two uniform volumes. Their new colored book for children, "Holly Berries" has started off well.

JAMES R. OSGORD & Co. have in press, and hope to publish about the middle of November a small book on the Harvard Greek play "Edipus Tyrannus," containing a full and accurate account of the preparations and performances, the characters and costumes, written by Henry Norman, one of the performers, and illustrated with fourteen heliotype of groups and single figures from negatives taken by James Notman.

As will be noticed in our advertising pages, Albert Cogswell & Co. offer for sale the stereotype plates of their Handy-volume edition of Shakespeare; Macaulay's critical, historical, and miscellaneous essays; the Star series of 12mos with illustrations; "Three Spaniards," by George Walker; "Mabel Vaughan," by the author of "The Lamplighter;" "Sea Bathing;" and Dickens' "Dream of a Star," with illustrations by H. Billings. All of these publications have been before the public for some time, and have always commanded a ready sale.

T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, Philadelphia, have in press a number of new books, among which are "La Curée" (Rénée), by Emile Zola, considered to be his greatest effort; "A Child of Israel," by Edward Cadol; "A Young Girl's Romance," a new love story by Ernest Daudet; and "Tania's Peril; or, The Edge of an Abyss," by Henry Greville. They have also nearly ready "The Russian Princess," by Emanuel Gonzales; "Genevieve's Victory," by Henry Greville; "Madame de Dreux," also by Henry Greville; "The Woman of Silver," by Hector Malot; "Through Failure to Success," by Mary Van Erden; and "The Laurence Reciter," by Philip Laurence.

WILLIAM T. COMSTOCK has favored us with advance sheets of "Practical Lessons in Architectural Drawing," by William B. Tuthill, architect, which is announced for issue Nov. 15. The work is designed as a guide to the making of working drawings and specifications for buildings, and embraces scale drawings of plans, elevations, etc.; details of frame, brick, and stone dwellings, with full and necessary descriptions. It is illustrated with thirty-three full-page plates (one in color) and thirty-three woodcuts, showing methods of construction and representation, and is a valuable and practical aid for carpenters, builders, and architectural students.

PORTER & COATES have now ready the new edition of "The Fireside Encyclopædia of Poetry." The work has been thoroughly revised and nearly two hundred poems have been added. A very attractive feature of the new edition is the insertion of portraits and autographs of prominent poets. "The Bells," by Poe, is also ready. This is a handsomely illustrated book, and will easily gain favor as a charming and at the same time inexpensive gift. It is illustrated from original designs, drawn expressly for this book, by F. O. C. Darley, A. Fredericks, Granville Perkins, S. G. McCutcheon, R. Riordan, Charles P. King, and Miss C. A. Northam. It is printed on heavy paper, and bound in a variety of styles ranging in price from $1.50 to $7.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. will publish soon the "Recollections of Auton House," postponed from Oct. 29; "Seven Voices of Sympathy," a selection by Miss Charlotte F. Bates from Longfellow's Poems,—a book intended for the comfort of the sorrowing, tried, and bereaved; the memorial volume to Prof. J. Lewis Diman, including "Orations, Addresses, and Selected Parish Sermons," with the excellent memorial address of Prof. J. O. Murray of Princeton, who has edited the book. It will have a portrait of Prof. Diman, etched by Mrs. Anna Lea Merritt of London. About the same time will appear Oliver Johnson's book on "William Lloyd Garrison and His Times," with the sub-title, Sketches of the Anti-slavery Movement in America, and of the man who was its founder and moral leader. This edition has been revised and enlarged, has a portrait, and an introduction by Mr. Whittier.

R. WORTHINGTON has now ready the octavo edition of Burns and Byron, uniform in shape and cloth bindings with the Dyce's Shakespeare recently issued by him; the third edition of his pretty children's book, "Cat's Cradle;" and red-line and plain editions of Tupper's "Poetical Works." Next week Mr. Worthington will issue Lady Duffus Hardy's new book, "Through Cities and Prairie Lands of America," which is described as an exceedingly friendly view of this country and withal readable. This edition has some additional matter not contained in the English issue of the work. Mr. Worthington has in preparation Goldsmith's "The Earth and Animated Nature;" new editions of Mrs. Warren's popular domestic books in five volumes, to be issued in paper and cloth bindings; of Florence Marryatt's works to be issued in paper and in cloth, the former style to be sold separately, the latter only in sets; and new editions of what have known to the trade as "Loring's Fifty Cents Library."

FORDS, HOWARD & HULBERT have now ready: "Shakespeare for the Young," edited by Prof. Robert R. Raymond, principal of the Boston School of Oratory, which is intended to serve as an introduction to the love of Shakespeare among young people, the elder children who have not yet begun to read the great poet. It presents three typical plays: "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "As You Like it," and "Julius Cæsar," giving them chiefly in attractive narrative form, but using as much of the Shakespeare text as the nature of the case allows, so that the form is easy of comprehension, with all the fascination of "stories," while the flavor of the poet's own thought and expression is given to the appreciative young minds. The volume is profusely illustrated, and is bound in a very attractive style. They have also ready "A Dog's Mission," and other stories, by Harriet Beecher Stowe, and new and enlarged editions of her former volumes, "Little Pussy Willow" and "Queer Little People;" new editions of "The Merry-go-round," which has been enlarged by new stories and fresh pictures; of Harriet Beecher Stowe's domestic tales; "My Wife and I," "We and Our Neighbors," "Pink and White Tyranny," and "Poganuc People," the four volumes in a box for $5; and Henry Ward Beecher's "Yale Lectures on Preaching," and "Norwood." The lectures, which were formerly issued in three volumes, are put up in one volume at less than half the former price for the three.

MAURICE DREYFOUS, Paris, has just issued a narrative of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's tour in America, written by one of her companions, which is exciting a good deal of attention.

SAMPSON LOW & Co., London, have made arrangements with the author and American publishers to issue "Garfield's Life and Words: Suggestive Passages from the Public and Private Writings of James Abram Garfield, and a Memoir," by Mr. W. R. Balch.

M. EMILE ZOLA's forthcoming volume, to be entitled "Documents Littéraires," will comprise chapters on Chateaubriand, Victor Hugo, Alfred de Musset, Théophile Gautier, Contemporary Poets, George Sand, Dumas fils, Sainte-Beuve, Contemporary Criticism, and Morality in Literature.

B. F. STEVENS, London, has issued the report of the proceedings of the meeting of Americans at Exeter Hall held on the occasion of the death of President Garfield (to which has been added the address delivered by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury at the church of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields at the hour of the funeral).

W. H. ALLEN & Co., London, will publish before the close of the year: "The Plays and Poems of Charles Dickens," collected and edited by Richard Herne Shepherd; "Prairie and Forest," a description of the game of North America, with personal adventures in its pursuit, by Parker Gillmore ("Ubique"); "Pioneering in the Far East: and Journeys to California in 1849 and to the White Sea in 1878," by Ludwig Verner Helmes, with illustrations from original sketches and photographs; "The Jesuits," a complete history of their public and private proceedings from the foundation of the order to the present time, by Theodor Griesinger; and "Franz Liszt, Artist and Man," by L. Ramann, translated from the German.

JUST as we go to press we are in receipt of an advertisement, too late for insertion, from Geo. A. Leavitt & Co., announcing "a mammoth book sale" for Tuesday morning, November 8, comprising some 200,000 volumes, the entire remainders of editions of the publications of the American Book Exchange, New York. We have only time and space for the simple announcement, which we cheerfully make, for the benefit of "all whom it may concern."

The prettiest, neatest, richest, most tasteful and novel little gift for Christmas is

BY THE AUTHOR OF

"Curfew must not ring to-night."

The above engraving gives the shape (but not the size) of a novel little book of Christmas Ballads and Poems, by Rose Hartwick Thorpe. The cover is a handsome piece of fine lithographic work in eight colors, of which no adequate idea can be given in the cut, but which would alone be worth, as a Christmas card, the price of the book.

The leaves of the book are made of fine Bristol board; the letterpress richly printed and the whole tied with ribbon. Each book in separate envelope.

MADELINE :

A Poem in Ten Cantos. Elegantly printed on superior sized and calendered paper, red line, small 4to, handsomely bound in cloth, bevelled edge, gold and black stamp on the side, $1.50.

PRESS COMMENTS.

"It is a book elegantly printed in red line border, and tastefully bound. The poem is divided into ten cantos, and presents the heroine in a series of well-drawn poetical pictures."—Journal of Education, Boston.

"It is a story of Western country life, told in an easy strain, pleasant to read and to remember."—Pittsburgh Telegraph.

"While telling a story, the author's chief aim is to portray a character. It is decidedly Western in tone, and gives descriptions of Western scenes."—Boston Post.

THE STREET SINGER.

A Poem. By D. C. ADDISON. Handsomely illustrated, printed on plate paper, red line, and elegantly bound in cloth, with gold side stamp and gilt edges. It makes a choice gift-book for the holidays. Square 16mo, $1.50.

"One of the most beautiful, richest, purest, and interesting poems that has emanated from the American press for a long season."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"It is a sweet little poem, in book form, which has lately come under our notice. It embodies a beautiful sentiment, and its story is written with a force of expression which bespeaks for its author rich literary talent."—American Art Journal, N. Y.

"Is an exquisite poem."—Indianapolis Journal.

"This beautiful poem contains a pathetic story in verse, told in the most felicitous manner, and with a cadence and touching expression which gives evidence of fine poetical ability in the author. . . . Handsomely illustrated and elegantly bound."—Pittsburgh Telegraph.

"The poem is one of merit."—Iowa State Register.

WAITING AT THE CROSS.

By Rev. D. C. EDDY, D.D. A collection of prose and poetry, original and selected. Square 18mo, printed on heavy supersized and calendered tinted paper, gilt edges, and bound in cloth, with gold side stamp, $1.50.

Chicago Tribune says: "The book is devotional, and contains many beautiful extracts, and some exquisite poetical pieces."

Interior says: "Its selections have been made with much discrimination, and furnish food for beneficial reflection."

The Advance says: "For spiritual, edifying, and devotional reading, it is a choice, rich book."

A BOOK OF MERIT.

A NEW EDITION IN BOARD COVERS AT 50 CENTS.

LITTLE ZEE!

A Fairy Story for "Frindy." By JULIA DANIELS MOSELY. With twelve unique and original illustrations, engraved especially for this book. 4to, cloth, elegant black and gold side stamp, $1.

LITTLE ZEE is the most attractive book of the year for children. Ask your bookseller for LITTLE ZEE, and if he does not have it, send $1 to the publishers, and receive a copy by return mail.

PRESS COMMENTS.

"LITTLE ZEE is a charmingly illustrated fairy tale in six chapters. The illustrations are quaint and odd, something out of the usual run, and the story itself is all that can be asked for."—Graphic, New York.

"It is a very pretty child's book; a fairy story, and a pleasing one. The work on the cover is admirable."—Chicago Tribune.

"LITTLE ZEE was a wonderful body, and had some wonderful adventures, and did no little good in his way."—Evening Journal.

"A very pretty fairy story, prettily illustrated, and handsomely bound."—Indianapolis Journal.

"This beautiful juvenile is a very attractive book for little folks. Will prove in every way a choice addition to all juvenile libraries."—Saturday Evening Herald.

"LITTLE ZEE is a pretty conceit, prettily carried out. It has a quaint little fairy for its hero, is written with much grace, and is pure and dainty in sentiment."—Gazette, Boston.

THE SUCCESS OF THE YEAR.

HAMMOCK SERIES.—No. 1.

"NO GENTLEMEN."

The brightest, most readable, and entertaining novel of the season.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS OF IT.

"We are soon amused, interested, and charmed. Belonging to the class of stories popularly called 'bright,' and published judiciously at the opening of the season of hammocks and piazzas, it is far more readable than most of its kind. The plot is not too much of a plot for a legitimate New England story, and the conversation of 'Jabe' is racy enough to make us forget that we were tired of Yankee dialect, as treated by Mrs. Stowe and Mrs. Whitney. Indeed, the book is thoroughly enjoyable."—The Critic, New York.

"No Gentlemen"

"Is a bright narrative of the summering of a half dozen Boston girls, just out from school, at Red Farm, in Pine-land, with Miss Hopeful Bounce, who advertises for summer boarders, but 'No Gentlemen.' In order to make a novel, of course, this prohibition must be broken down, and, as the girls, particularly the heroine and her special friend, are pleasant company, the story is as readable as if it were a 'No Name,' as it is, in fact."—Springfield Republican.

"No Gentlemen"

Is issued in elegant style, being printed on fine tinted paper, making a book of 348 pages, bound in fine cloth, with unique side stamp in black and gold, and sold at the low price of $1, by the publishers,

CONTAINING

*Practical Information regarding Climate, Soil, and Productions; Cities, Towns, and People; Scenery and Resorts; the Culture of the Orange and other Tropical Fruits;
Farming and Gardening; Sports;
Routes of Travel, etc., etc.*

BY GEORGE M. BARBOUR.

With Map and numerous Illustrations. 12mo, cloth. Price, $1.50.

This is the most comprehensive and authentic book on Florida that has been published. The following TESTIMONIAL is proof of its value and trustworthiness:

"It is known to the undersigned that the author, Mr. George M. Barbour, has travelled over almost the whole of Florida, under circumstances peculiarly advantageous for enabling him to acquaint himself with the varied resources of the State, and with the attractions which it offers to the three classes to whom his work is addressed—Tourists, Invalids, and Settlers. Our knowledge of his abilities as a writer on Florida subjects, and of the opportunities he has enjoyed in preparing his book, are such that we can commend it as at once trustworthy and comprehensive—greatly superior in these respects to anything hitherto published descriptive of the entire State and its soil and productions.

"W. D. BLOXHAM, Governor of Florida.

"GEORGE F. DREW, ex-Governor of Florida.

"SETH FRENCH, ex-Commissioner of Immigration.]

The extent of our list, the originality, and especially the American character of our designs, together with the great care taken in their execution, will no doubt secure for our goods the popularity which they have enjoyed heretofore. The names of the artists whose designs have been reproduced are a guaranty of their excellence. We would only name

ELIHU VEDDER, C. C. COLEMAN, THOMAS MORAN, Miss ROSINA EMMET, Miss DORA WHEELER, Mrs. O. E. WHITNEY, W. H. GIBSON, F. S. CHURCH, R. G. BIRCH, etc.

Our silk-fringed cards will be in great demand this season. They are made with the best quality of silk fringes of new colors and style. A marked feature of our cards is the elegantly ornamented and attractive backs. All our fringed cards are furnished with envelopes and protectors, so as to insure safe transportation in the mails.

Prang's Prize Christmas Cards.—Competition of 1881.

These are the cards selected by the judges in the second competition for four designs of Christmas Cards, for which we offered $2000 in prizes of $1000, $500, $300 and $200 respectively. At the recommendation of the judges, the prize for the third best card was increased to $500. Mrs. Celia Thaxter has written appropriate verses for each of the designs.

First Prize Card ($1000) . . . by Elihu Vedder. | Third Prize Card ($500) . . . by C. C. Coleman.
Second Prize Card ($500) by Miss Dora Wheeler. | Fourth Prize Card ($200) by Miss Rosina Emmet.

LEE AND SHEPARD'S NEW BOOKS.

HE GIVETH HIS BELOVED SLEEP.

By ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING. With full-page and letter-press illustrations, from designs by Miss L. B. HUMPHREY, engraved by ANDREW. Small 4to, English cloth, full gilt, $1.50. Uniform with the Series of Illustrated Hymns and Poems: "Nearer my God, to Thee;" "Abide with Me;" "The Breaking Waves Dashed High;" "Rock of Ages;" "O why should the Spirit of Mortal be Proud?" "The Vagabonds;" "Home, Sweet Home."

"Illustrated without stint, and with an artistic fidelity and sympathy of expression; faultless in letter-press; heavy, rich, and finely tinted paper, and exquisite binding, the publishers have offered to the American public a series of livres de luxe worthy the acceptance of a princess, yet within reach of every person."

HANNAH JANE.

By DAVID ROSS LOCKE (Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby). With numerous full-page and letter-press illustrations. Royal 8vo, rich English cloth, full gilt, $1.50.

"It is so thoroughly human that, while a tear gathers in the eye, a smile will tremble on the lip. The illustrations, too, are beautiful."

OUR LITTLE ONES.

Illustrated Stories and Poems for Little People. Edited by OLIVER OPTIC. Royal 8vo, 7x9¼ inches, elegantly illuminated cover, $1.50; cloth, black and gold, $2.50.

Its nearly 400 pages, containing over 200 original poems and stories by the best American writers for little people, illustrated by over 350 woodcuts from the pencils of 28 American artists especially for it, and engraved by Andrew, combine to make a volume unapproached in little folks' literature, either in this country or Europe, and which is as attractive to parents as it is amusing and instructive to children.

"Inside and out, no daintier book for the little ones ever was made."

YOUNG AMERICANS IN JAPAN; or, The Adventures of the Jewett Family and their friend Oto Nambo.

By EDWARD GREEV. With 170 full-page and letter-press illustrations. Royal 8vo, 7x9¼ inches, handsomely illuminated cover, $1.50; cloth, black and gold, $2.50.

This book describes the adventures of two live American boys, their sister and parents, and a young Japanese who had been educated in this country, in their journeyings through the principal cities and towns of Japan—containing vivid descriptions of the country, and of the habits and customs of the wonderful people who live in the "Land of the Rising Sun." Uniform with

DRIFTING ROUND THE WORLD; A Boy's Adventures by Sea and Land.

By Capt. CHARLES W. HALL, author of "Adrift in the Ice Fields." With 200 illustrations. Royal 8vo, handsome cover, $1.50; cloth, gilt, $2.50.

A graphic story of shipwreck on the coast of Labrador, and travels in Iceland, Scotland, England, France, Holland, Russia, Asia, the Siberian Desert, Alaska and across the Continent; with accidents, incidents, and experiences which only a boy could have had, and which a boy can appreciate.

THE FORTUNATE ISLAND, and other Stories.

By MAX ADELER. Illustrated. In press.

YOUNG FOLKS' ROBINSON CRUSOE.

By a lady. Edited by OLIVER OPTIC. With numerous full-page and letter-press illustrations. Boards, illuminated sides, $1.25.

The story of Defoe without the coarseness and vulgarity of the seventeenth century. It takes the hero—a well-educated, observing youth of 15 years—through all those strange and fascinating scenes which have charmed the world for two centuries, and so presents them that the story may with safety become a household volume.

TRIBULATIONS OF A CHINAMAN.

Translated from the French of Jules Verne by VIRGINIA CHAMPLAIN. With 50 full-page illustrations. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

"The only tears which one will shed over these tribulations will be those of excessive laughter."

THE FOUR-FOOTED LOVERS.

By FRANK ALBERTSON. Illustrated from Original Designs by Miss L. B. HUMPHREY. 4to, illuminated sides, $1.

Delightful stories of the trials and tribulations, the loves and frolics, of calves, squirrels, cats and dogs; with their friendships for the boys and girls, and for Farmer John and his wife.

NEW ENGLAND BIRD-LIFE.

Being a Manual of New England Ornithology. Revised and edited from the manuscript of Winfrid A. Stearns, member of the Nuttall Ornithological Club, etc. By Dr. ELLIOTT COUES, U. S. A., Member of the Academy, etc. Oscines (Singing Birds.) Illustrated, $2.50.

The most complete cyclopædia of singing-birds of New England. The editor's name is a guarantee that the work is thoroughly and completely prepared.
